

Learn How We Helped One Team Realty Earn $900K In One Week.

Successful Realtors are more than just great salesmen, They're connectors—people who excel at bringing people together, pro's who create bonds and care.

For Jason Hansraj and his team at One Team Realty their goal is for every interaction to matter and be purposeful. From buyers to sellers, developers and other Realtors, they aim to make a positive impact.

Three big problems needing a really big solution

1. When potential clients called they were immediately sent to voicemail if an agent was at a showing.
2. Missed calls from advertising campaigns meant wasted ad dollars.
3. Current customers grew frustrated & felt unappreciated waiting hours for call backs.

94% of agents sent callers to voicemail during property showings.

“Being a Real estate agent or Realtor is hard but missing out on sales simply due to missing calls was something we just could no longer accept”

How we turned things around for the best? the Receptionists started answering anytime an agent was at a showing or whenever in-house staff were unavailable. Our top-rated, professional receptionists allow One Team Realty the freedom to chase the leads that matter and still answer inbound calls.

The Results

One Team Realty saw a jump in answered calls from their ad campaigns.

Realtors are happier due to less stress from having to call back upset clients who miss out on placing bids on their dream homes.

The Bonus

Our very first week answering calls we were able to gather information from two clients who put in winning bids on homes with sales worth $950,000. Talk about earning our keep!

“Leads are captured and waiting in our inboxes. What Realtor wouldn't love this? The cherry on the cake is that they do this day in and day out without our clients ever knowing any different.”
