

Making The Case: How To Win Clients With the Receptionists

Solo and small-practice Attorneys are super busy, each day dozens of decisions need to be made. Filings, casework research and administrative tasks are just the handful of things that require your attention. the Receptionists have been proven to increase efficiency, capture new inbound leads and improve overall customer satisfaction. Find out how the Receptionists helps Attorneys positively grow their bottom line.

Portray A Professional Practice

It's not always easy for solo or small practices to give off a polished look. Our live receptionists ensure your practices first contact with potential clients is seamless & professional.

Goodbye Out-of-office

Legal emergencies don't just occur during business hours. Some of the best leads come in after-hours, so don't miss your next big case because you're out of office.

Stand Out & Make It Personal

the Receptionists lets you customize your greetings based on any number of specifications. Our receptionists are engaging and professional in order to connect with your clients each time they call.

Expert Pre-screen Intake Services

the Receptionists are pros at collecting all the detailed intake information that you need. They can inform your clients of the next steps, thereby making your life easier.

More Billable Hours

the Receptionists answers your calls leaving you free to handle billable work. Less time on the phone means more time connecting with existing and potential new clients. We'll help you get off the phone & back to work on your caseload.

Sensitive Client Services

the Receptionists are trusted to be empathetic, to make clients feel heard and valued. Our goal is to always make a great impression on your behalf.

“the Receptionists service helps keep me in the game and off of the phones. Their messages are incredibly accurate and timely. That by itself is worth what we pay for the Receptionists”

Devin Baer
Bhatt Law Group

Try the Receptionists Risk Free

Interested in learning how the Receptionist can elevate your client experience and help you earn more business? Get in touch today at theReceptionists.com