

Six ways the Receptionists help increase revenue.

Great experiences improve your company's bottom line. Create wow-worthy first impressions that count with a team of top-rated virtual receptionists on your side.

1

Answer calls.
Earn more business.

Each time you fail to answer a call, you can bet your competition will. Live virtual receptionists turn more callers into clients by serving as an extension of your business when you're unavailable.

2

We sweat the Small stuff.

Every word we say, our tone of voice and even our detailed notes all help make it easy to run & grow your business.

3

Reduce overhead.

the Receptionists don't need to be paid sick time, vacation or taxes because they're not your employee. This means our service comes at a fraction of the cost of an in-house receptionist.

4

Make it personal.

Customers enjoy speaking with other people & when those people are friendly and authentic it shows through increased customer loyalty.

5

Stay Mobile

the Receptionists help you do business anywhere that works for you. Go where your customers are, instead of being stuck in the office and on the phones.

6

Stop spreading yourself thin.

Leave at 5 or at 8 PM, the Receptionists has you covered. Even while you're taking time away from the business, the Receptionists are answering calls & turning callers into customers.
