

Five Benefits of the Receptionists Live Answering

Human Connections Create Customer Loyalty

Delivering excellent phone service starts with actually answering the phone. The Receptionists live answering & virtual receptionist service helps you respond quick and establish your business as reliable and ready to assist. People buy from people—creating authentic connections with your customers improves your reputation for providing great customer experiences and win more business.

Collect Detailed Information 85%
of people never call back if their calls aren't answered

Win More Business
80%
convert to recurring customers after a positive phone experience

Elevate Customer Satisfaction
67%
simply disconnect the call when they can't reach a human.

No Voicemails. No Bots
85%
of companies are already thinking about switching to live customer service

Improve Service Reputation
72%
of customers say they are likely to share good customer service experiences with family & friends

